

Hexham & District Photographic Society

Society Constitution Rules Governing the Society

Established 1946

Updated April 2025

Affiliated to the Northern Counties Photographic Federation (NCPF) and the Photographic Alliance of Great Britain (PAGB)

1. The Society shall be called the Hexham & District Photographic Society, having as objectives the study & advancement of photography.
2. Governing Body and Officers of the Society
  - a. The Officers of the Society shall be the President, Vice President, Immediate Past President, Secretary, Syllabus Secretary, Exhibitions Officer, Competition Secretaries (Internal and External), Treasurer, Marketing Officer and a Committee of up to four ordinary members.
The governing body of the Society shall be the Council consisting of the Officers and Committee as set out in 2a.
  - b. The President shall hold office for not more than three (but normally two) consecutive years unless otherwise decided by the Council. The Vice-President shall become President upon the retirement of the President.
  - c. The Secretary, Syllabus Secretary, , Internal Competition Secretary, External Competition Secretary, Treasurer, Marketing Officer shall be elected for one year and shall hold office until successors are appointed at the Annual General meeting. They will be eligible for re-election.
  - d. The nominations for Officers and Committee members (the consent of each nominee having been previously obtained) shall be delivered to the Secretary prior to or at the Annual General Meeting. No names other than those properly nominated shall be submitted to the meeting for ballot or be eligible for election.

Before proceeding to the ballot, the presiding officer shall appoint scrutineers from the members of the Society who have not been nominated for any office.

3. Roles and Responsibilities

- a. The President, Vice-President and all other Officers and Committee members shall assume their duties on the day following the Annual General Meeting. The Council shall have the power to fill any vacancy in membership of the Council that may occur, until the next Annual General Meeting.
  - b. The Council shall have the power, if the occasion arises, to co-opt additional members to the Council or to appoint sub-committees for specific purposes.
4. The business of the Society shall be conducted by the Council, five of whom shall form a quorum.
  5. Ordinary meetings shall be held during the year as the Council may direct. Special General Meetings shall be convened by the Council or upon the written request of ten ordinary members.
  6. The Secretary shall record the minutes of all AGM's, Council and general meetings. These minutes must be published and displayed on the Club Notice Board and Website.
  7. The Society has an Equality Policy, supporting the principles of equal opportunities in the membership and management of the Society. Copies of the Equality Policy can be found on the Society website or obtained from the Society Secretary.
  8. The Society has a Child, Young People and Vulnerable Adults Policy, relating to the protection of such individuals with respect to sexual, emotional or physical abuse, health and safety issues and the protection of their personal data. Copies of the Child, Young People and Vulnerable Adults Policy can be found on the Society website or obtained from the Society Secretary.
  9. The Society has a Privacy Policy, defining how the Society uses and protects personal information supplied by individual members.
  10. Anyone wishing to join the Society must provide name, address, telephone number and email to the Club Treasurer at the time of paying their membership. Based on current competition entry criteria they will be classified as an Standard or Advanced worker and given a Membership Number.

11. Honorary Membership

- a. Honorary Life Membership. The Council has, until April 2018, awarded Honorary Life Membership to members who have made outstanding contributions to the Society. All Honorary Life Memberships will continue to be recognised as such and receive the benefits of Honorary Membership.

- b. Honorary Membership. From April 2018, the Council shall have power to propose Honorary Members.
  - i. Honorary Members of the Society shall be appointed at the AGM. ii. Honorary memberships shall be for a renewable period of five years.
  - iii. An Honorary Member so appointed shall be entitled to attend lectures without payment of subscriptions.
  - iv. There shall only be a maximum of six Honorary Members allowed in the Society at any one time. This number shall not include existing Honorary Life Memberships.
  - v. Honorary Members will have full voting rights.

12. Subscriptions

- a. The rate of the Annual Subscriptions for the coming year shall be fixed at each Annual General Meeting.
  - b. A member joining the Society on or after the first day of January in any year shall be required to pay only half the current subscription.
  - c. Subscriptions become due on the first meeting of the session and must be paid promptly.
  - d. Entry into any of the Society's competitions will not be allowed if the subscription has not been paid.
  - e. All funds raised by the Society will be invested in the pursuance of Society activities and approved by the Council.
13. Friends of members will be welcome at occasional meetings of the Society.
14. The Council shall have power to terminate membership of any member at any time for non-payment of subscription or for misdemeanour, such termination to be notified in writing. A member expelled or asked to resign shall have the right of appeal to a special general meeting called for that purpose. Any proceedings under this rule shall be treated as private and confidential.
15. The Council shall have power to acquire and dispose of property and equipment on behalf of the Society.
16. The financial year of the Society shall end on the last day of February and the Annual General Meeting shall be held within two calendar months thereof. At the AGM ten members shall form a quorum.

17. No changes to the constitution shall be made, nor any rule amended or rescinded except in the following manner:
  - a. Any proposal shall be notified to the Secretary at least seven days before the Annual General Meeting of the Society called for that purpose.
18. The Council is empowered to make rules governing the Society's Competitions and Exhibitions.
19. The Council is empowered to make rules for the use of the Society's premises and property.
20. The Society may be dissolved by the consent of two-thirds of the members voting in favour of such a course of action at a General Meeting. In the event of Dissolution of the Society or discontinuance of the meetings, all property shall be sold. Once debts are settled the balance shall be given to an appointed charity / or to the NCPF.
21. The Club Constitution was adopted by the Society in 1946 at the first Annual General Meeting, and has been adapted and developed at subsequent annual meetings.

Signed President:

Signed Treasurer:

Signed Secretary: